In addition to the above, the Centre provides services and facilities, as follows:

- Islamic Community     Ramadan and Eid are held within the Centre, attracting an estimated 1,500+ each day
- Sports Hall             Hired an average 25 hours per week for footballers, most of whom work in the area but do not necessarily live locally.
- Also used by local teams: Albion Star Football Club; St Malachy's GAC; Queens Basketball; Breda GAC; Belfast Community Sports Development Network; South Belfast Sports Forum
- Youth Project           Delivers activities an average 22 hours per week
- Children's Project       Delivers activities an average 16 hours per week
- Sure Start                Provides 7 creche sessions per week and one mother-and-toddler group per week, in addition to outreach work with families
- Room Hire                Rooms are available to hire within the Centre for meetings and functions.
- Marketing materials are produced and distributed through networking opportunities with organisations across Belfast, to ensure facilities are available to a diverse range of groups. Marketing materials are also handed to people using the Centre and distributed to BCC staff in meetings with them.
