

Ruby Murray Village Green

Ruby Murray (1935-1996)

Belfast's "Songbird of the 1950s," Ruby Murray captivated the British Isles with her unique, husky voice and charming personality.

Rising to fame as a teenager, she achieved an astounding five simultaneous Top Twenty hits in 1955, a record that still stands today.

Her music brought joy to millions and remains a beloved part of our cultural heritage.

Play fair

Everyone can do their bit to make this park a happy and safe environment.

It is an offence to:

- deface or damage anything or write graffiti
- drink alcohol or use drugs
- play loud music and disturb others
- use a motorbike, quad or other unauthorised vehicle.

Bye-laws apply. Visit belfastcity.gov.uk/parks

Opening hours 7.30am -

Get in touch

We regularly inspect this park to make sure it is safe and clean. Please report any safety concerns, damage or other incidents to:

028 9032 0202

In an emergency call 999

Your location coordinates are

X 54.58756 Y -5.95342

Belfast
City Council Empowering
Belfast

For more info, please scan our QR code

Ruby Murray Village Green

Ruby Murray (1935-1996)

Belfast's "Songbird of the 1950s," Ruby Murray captivated the British Isles with her unique, husky voice and charming personality.

Rising to fame as a teenager, she achieved an astounding five simultaneous Top Twenty hits in 1955, a record that still stands today.

Her music brought joy to millions and remains a beloved part of our cultural heritage.

Play fair

Everyone can do their bit to make this park a happy and safe environment.

It is an offence to:

- deface or damage anything or write graffiti
- drink alcohol or use drugs
- play loud music and disturb others
- use a motorbike, quad or other unauthorised vehicle.

Bye-laws apply. Visit belfastcity.gov.uk/parks

Opening hours 7.30am -

Get in touch

We regularly inspect this park to make sure it is safe and clean. Please report any safety concerns, damage or other incidents to:

028 9032 0202

In an emergency call 999

Your location coordinates are

X 54.58756 Y -5.95342

Belfast City Council Empowering Belfast