Dear Sir/Madam

We intend to hold two shows in Andersonstown Leisure Centre on the evenings of Friday 4th March and Saturday 5th March 2011.

These shows will form part of a Celtic Festival which will take place in West Belfast from Friday 4th March until Sunday 6th March 2011.

Tickets will only be available through Ticketmaster.

We will be employing a reputable security company, approved by the manager of Andersonstown Leisure Centre.

We have applied for an occasional licence to sell alcohol at both these shows.

Our public liability insurance will be handled by Hutchison White & Co, based on the Belmont Road.

At the shows, we intend to erect big screens where we will play messages of support from Celtic players and fans.

We will also have music on both evenings. On Friday 4th March, we will have Charlie & The Bhoys play live, and on Saturday 5th March we will have Patricia Ferns play live.

The designated charity for the festival is the West Belfast Suicide Awareness Support Group, which does a vital job with minimal resources in an area which is badly affected by suicide.

The Suicide Awareness Group will benefit financially from the festival, as well as having their profile raised considerably.

Current members of the Celtic first team will be present at the festival, along with several celebrities, including world snooker champion John Higgins, comedian Kevin Bridges and George Galloway MP.
