Dear Sir/Madam

HISTORIC BUILDINGS LIST NO 838

St. Aidan's Church of Ireland, Blythe Street, Belfast, County Antrim appears on the above list dated 14th March 1986 .

The Department has reconsidered the heritage value of the above building and concluded that it remains of sufficient interest for protection as a listed building.

It's statutory listing remains unchanged, however, we have updated our record and I enclose a copy of the updated schedule which supplements the original schedule.

Yours faithfully

STEVEN TOSH

118th LIST OF BUILDINGS OF SPECIAL ARCHITECTURAL OR HISTORIC INTEREST IN THE CITY OF BELFAST

Ward: St Georges

HB Ref. Number	OS Map Numbers 1:2,500 or 1:10,000	Irish Grid Ref.	Building	Date Listed	Grade	Description and Evaluation	Date of Erection
HB26/29/013	147/1 NW	J3312 7336	St. Aidan's Church of Ireland including Church, railings and boundary wall Blythe Street Belfast County Antrim		B2	A detached asymmetrical Gothic Revival Church of Ireland church, built c. 1895, located to the north side of Blythe Street, to the west of Sandy Row. This church has retained much of its original detailing and character both externally and internally with original timber panelling and decorative work still largely intact. Notable features of the interior include decorative hammer-beam roof trusses, the curved timber roof structure over the chancel and large double-gabled transepts. The interior is enhanced by original intricate leaded stained glass windows to the chancel. This church is a significant building in the area and is of considerable social importance and interest to the community it serves.	1880 - 1899
