

Appendix 1: Examples of the type of services and support provided by other Councils

- A single point of contact to assist in liaising with the relevant local statutory services.
- Signposting to key information on the economy, industry strengths & skills and the available financial support and incentives.
- Access to Business, Investment and Economic Development Support advisors.
- A fast track planning process.
- A 'soft landing service' to provide an interim base for businesses to expand.
- Signposting to other professional support and advice, such as relevant supply chains and networks and to local universities and private sector research organisations.
- Information on available property and development sites.
- Ongoing aftercare to support the growth of the client's business to develop further opportunities to invest within the city.
- A tailored relocation service to support the requirements of key personnel wishing to relocate to the city.
- Tailored information on quality of life and key services in the city.