2.2	27 clubs at volunteer education event		Our 'Engaging & Empowering Females in Boxing' conference will be held on Sunday 3rd February 2019 (Crowne Plaza, Shawsbridge). The conference will focus on addressing some of the key challenges faced in respect of female participation and involvement in the sport. The event will include 2 x keynote speakers as well as a range of workshops for participants to partake. The conference will also include a panel discussion which will explore challenges and opportunities for females across all aspects of the sport, and the day will conclude with a recognition ceremony to acknowledge and celebrate the hard work and dedication of a number of key volunteers within the sport.
2.3	27 clubs at volunteer recognition event		As above, in the interest of best value it was felt it was more appropriate to combine this event with the education event rather than hire a hall twice and also in order to facilitate the busy calendar of events of boxing for the membership.

3.1	2 officials to gain talent referee and judge qualification		It is anticipated that a AIBA (World Boxing Body) R&J course will be scheduled for Q4. Once a date has been confirmed by the World body we will be in a better position to update.
